Introducing Christian Liberal Arts Education

Preliminary reflections

Name____________________________________

How do you define the term “liberal arts?”

What distinguishes a liberal arts education from other approaches to higher education?

What distinguishes Christian higher education from other approaches to higher education?

What connections do you see between your understanding of the aims of a liberal arts education and the aims of Christian education?

What tensions do you see between your understanding of the aims of a liberal arts education and the aims of Christian education?

How do you see your Christian liberal arts education contributing to your future working life?

How do you see your Christian liberal arts education contributing to your involvement in your community (American society, local community, church, etc.)?
